Share your Story

Everyone affected by acoustic neuroma has a unique story to tell, including patients, spouses, and caregivers. It can also include children of those diagnosed with AN, best friends, and siblings. There are many different perspectives and insights. All are connected to an acoustic neuroma experience, and all are valuable.

Use our online form to submit your story. If you need ideas or help getting started, contact us to request our Storytelling Toolkit.

Employment Considerations Reference Guide

The ANA's employment reference guide was compiled from patients, volunteers, and caregivers. Each journey is unique, and employment situations can certainly be distinctive. We encourage you to use this resource as a starting point as you consider your situation, as well as questions and options. This is not meant to be comprehensive, nor should it be considered legal advice.

AN Research

The ANA posts information about acoustic neuroma medical studies and trials, which may be of interest to patients and caregivers. Visit the ANA website for more information about online and in-person research opportunities.

Resources for Young Adults with Acoustic Neuroma

- Young Adult Facebook Group - This is a closed group moderated by ANA Staff and Volunteers.
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/ANAYoungAdults>
- Young Adult Online Support Group - The group meets quarterly via Zoom and is moderated by ANA volunteers.
Contact: Emily Truell, Support Group Leader, anayoungadults@gmail.com

Peer Mentor Program

Peer Mentors are volunteers who are acoustic neuroma patients and caregivers who are willing to talk about their acoustic neuroma experience. They provide information, encouragement, and support to other acoustic neuroma patients via phone, email, and video chat. Information about peer mentors is provided in our free patient kit or contact us to request a peer match today.

Support Groups

The ANA offers a variety of support groups so that you can find what is best for you and your situation, including:

- Geographic support groups across the U.S.
- Specialty support groups
- Co-sponsored support groups with a medical partner

All Support Group meetings are free and open to anyone affected by acoustic neuroma; we look forward to welcoming you at a meeting soon. When you are ready, we are here. View upcoming meetings here.

Team ANA - Fundraise for the ANA!

- Increase awareness of acoustic neuroma while raising funds for the ANA.
- Create your own fundraisers through Facebook, Walk4Hearing, or any individual fundraiser held locally.
- Contact Matthew Balte at matthewbalte@anausa.org if you are interested in raising funds for the ANA!

ANA Legacy Society

Philanthropic support is critically important to fulfilling the mission of the ANA. Our Legacy Society represents unique, exceptionally generous contributors who have included the ANA in their estate plans. This forward-looking philanthropy will have a remarkable impact on the future of the ANA. We are very grateful for the commitments made by our Legacy Society members.

- To begin the conversation, contact Matthew Balte at matthewbalte@anausa.org.
- You will also want to seek the advice of an attorney who specializes in estate planning.

In no case does ANA endorse any commercial product, physician, surgeon, medical procedure, medical institution, or its staff.
